PRESENTATION

An innovation in this

Professional Team Analyst

is the video analysis. This complement allows you to make cuts in the videos to unite or extract the necessary parts, thus carrying out complex and detailed studies of the opponent's moves, which lead to planning improved strategies. Each play can be viewed in depth to determine the techniques applied, thus determining which ones should be deepened and which ones should be changed.

Nowadays, the great teams of international stature are based on applications for soccer scouting, and in all their conceptualization and tools to take advantage of their opponent. For this reason, soccer scouting is considered to be a highly demanded profession that is on the rise.

INNOVATIVE PROGRAM
BASED ON TRENDS IN THE SPORTS WORLD

OBJECTIVES

The main objectives of our course are to develop in our students strategic thinking for analysis and research, which generates a specialized football analysis report. But also, create the necessary conditions to comply with the context proposed by the directive based on the season or competition cycle; providing the basic information necessary to ensure the success of the team.

The best thing about our soccer analyst career is that it is based on the most advanced applications based on the high performance of the discipline. Determining each tactic of the own team and the opposite. The skill is also applicable to futsal.
